

The background image shows a grand, ornate interior space, likely a hall or a large room. On the left, a large, ornate mirror with a gold frame reflects a view of a vaulted ceiling with a circular window and a chandelier. The ceiling is decorated with a large, colorful floral fresco. The walls are light-colored with decorative moldings. In the foreground, rows of wooden chairs are visible, suggesting a seating area for a seminar or lecture. A pink semi-transparent box is overlaid on the right side of the image, containing text.
